

Expectations

- To be polite to: teachers, support staff, other children and visitors and respect the authority of the adult in charge.
- To listen to adults and each other in lessons, assemblies, at lunchtime and outside and to consider each other`s feelings.
- To walk about the school quietly and calmly
- To take a positive role in all classroom activities and to try as hard as you can.
- To wait your turn to talk to members of staff and to each other. We don`t shout out in class and raise our hands to talk to the teacher.
- To value each others work and opinions.
- To work and play co-operatively with each other.
- To tell the truth, to take responsibility for your own behaviour and not to make excuses. (“They told me to”)
- To accept a solution or consequence if you have done something wrong - not to argue or to get angry with the adult dealing with the situation.
- To be able to say sorry when you have misbehaved or hurt someone and to understand that the apology signals a change in your behaviour, attitude and mood.
- To care for the school and its equipment and to report any damage you see.
- To feel responsible for giving a positive impression of yourself and the school both within and outside of the school.

What you can expect of staff

1. To listen to you and to hear your point of view.
2. To be polite and to address you in a reasonable tone of voice.
3. To value all aspects of your achievements.
4. To be as fair and consistent as possible when you have misbehaved.
5. To ensure the learning environment in safe.
6. To talk with you about things that go wrong; we want you to understand why some things are wrong and why we have rules.
7. To create a positive environment in the classroom and playground.
8. To be in charge and maintain order so that everyone may benefit from a positive environment.
9. To supervise the playground and ensure pupils are safe
10. To treat you as individuals and to take an interest in your lives.
11. To see each day as a fresh start.

Appendix 2